JUDGMENT

The petitioner is the father of a minor victim of the offence of rape. The alleged incident took place on 29/1/07. The short grievance of the petitioner is that no proper investigation is being conducted.

2. Notice was given to the learned Public Prosecutor. The Investigating Officer has filed a statement. The statement reveals that the needful has already been done for a proper investigation of the crime. The statement shows that the offender is a juvenile, he having been born only on 30/4/1990 as per the school certificate. The Investigating Officer submits that the report of the Chemical Examiner as also the birth certificate of the accused are awaited and the needful shall be done.

3. I do not, in these circumstances, find any reason or circumstances to justify the invocation of the jurisdiction under

Sec.482 of the Cr.P.C.

4. This writ petition is, in these circumstances, dismissed.
